

We are excited to announce that a new restaurant and bar will be opening March 2011 here at A Perryville Place in the former Table 13 location. The name of the new restaurant is Perry Rock

They will serving lunch and dinner daily and will offer late night dining until 1am. Executive chef, Matt Martin has created a menu that is sure to please. Matt completed his culinary education at Le Cordon Bleu in Las Vegas, NV and has worked in some of the finest kitchens in the country, including Top Chef Judge, Tom Colicchio's Craft Steak (MGM Grand), Charlie Palmers Steak (Four Seasons Hotel) and Trevi (Caesars Palace).

"With Matt's culinary genius and our vision for a unique and exciting space to dine and drink with friends, we hope to bring Rockford a place that everyone will enjoy. We hope to see you all at our Grand Opening in March. We aim to please you, and appreciate the opportunity to do so."
